*Affirmation of Faith: "The Apostles' Creed"

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is one true and Apostolic Church, whose faith let us now declare:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

*Gloria Patri
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

Let the Fire of the Holy Spirit Rest on Us

Greeting

(Based on Ezekiel 37:1-14; Acts 2:1-21)

Like the people of Ezekiel's day, we have grown apart from God.

We want what we want, ignoring God's desires for us.

We have made our dreams and our desires more important to us than God.

We have drifted away from the faith of our forebears. And now we wander blindly in a valley of dry, dusty bones, seeking refreshment for our thirsting souls.

Answer the deep longing of our hearts with the fullness of your love, so that once again we will know the sufficiency of life with you.

Let the fire of the Holy Spirit rest on us, as it did on the faithful at Pentecost. Touch us, Lord, set our souls on fire with a burning that cannot be quenched.

Opening Prayer

(Based on Acts 2:1-21)

Lord, we are here, together in this place, just as your followers gathered together on the day of Pentecost.

Send the rushing wind to fill this place, blow away our transgressions and set our souls on fire for you.

Do it again, Lord, just like you did in the valley of dry bones.

Do it again, Lord!

We know that you can revive us.

We believe that you can make us new.

We believe, Lord. Help our unbelief. Amen.
